PRELIMINARY RULES AND GUIDELINES

- All work exhibited must be original artwork produced by the artist/crafter. Vendors selling mass produced items or work produced from kits, molds or commercial patterns will not be allowed.
- All activities take place in downtown Hamburg. Streets will be closed for this event -specifically, 3rd St. between Island St. & Washington St., and State St. between 4th St. & 2nd St.
- Some set ups may be on the sidewalk; however the sidewalks are wide enough to accommodate a 10 x 10 canopy
- All displays must be totally set up by 9:30 am
- There will be no refunds given for any reason
- It is your responsibility to bring all supplies needed, including tables and canopies.
- All canopies must be secured with sand bags or another object to prevent them from lifting in the wind. However you cannot put holes into the macadam or sidewalks.
- Electric is not available
- All prices must be posted
- All vehicles must be removed from event area to allow for visitor parking. Details on parking locations will be provided in your participant packet of information.
- You must remain at your stands until the event is officially over. Please do not tear down prior to the end of event at 4 pm.
- Please do not contact business owners requesting information or to be stationed in front of their property. The festival committee is solely responsible for providing the area in which you will be stationed.
- You will receive a packet of information approximately two weeks prior to the event, detailing your locations, rules and regulations, set up times, etc.
- Any questions? Contact hamburgarts@verizon.net or call 610-562-3106
